MEDIA INFORMATION

INTERVIEWS

Interviews with head coach Jenny Mainz and all student-athletes must be arranged through athletics communications assistant Drake Allen. On match days, interviews will not be available until all competition has finished.

INTERNET

Information about University of Alabama athletics can be found online at RollTide.com. For information about the Crimson Tide women's tennis team, select women's tennis under the sports dropdown menu on the home page. In addition, information can be found on various social networks including Facebook, Twitter and Instagram by searching for AlabamaWTN.

FACILITIES

The men's and women's tennis teams practice and compete at The University of Alabama Tennis Stadium, located adjacent to Rhoads Stadium on 5th Ave. East. The 12-court facility includes team locker rooms, coaches' offices, a training room and team meeting room. The teams also have a six-court indoor building, the Roberta Alison Baumgardner Tennis Facility, which was dedicated in April 2012.

UA VIDEO FEEDS/TELEVISION

The University of Alabama, through the Crimson Tide Sports Network (CTSN), offers an FTP site that provide up-to-date interviews with coaches and athletes, taped video highlights and narrated tape packages from September through May. On occasion, the women's tennis team is featured in this package. Please call the Athletics Communications Office for more details at 205-348-6084.

ALABAMA PRESIDENT DR. STUART R. BELL

ON YOUR CAMPUS...

Dr. Stuart R. Bell became the 29th president of The University of Alabama on July 15, 2015. Founded in 1831, the University is the state's flagship and a student-centered, comprehensive research university.

Dr. Bell has broad administrative experience and is a nearly 30-year veteran of higher education. He previously served at UA for 16 years where he founded and directed an interdisciplinary research center.

Immediately prior to becoming UA's president, Dr. Bell was executive vice president and provost at Louisiana State University. During Dr. Bell's tenure there and earlier at the University of Kansas where he served as dean of its College of Engineering, those institutions opened new facilities, and student recruitment, retention and success were emphasized.

First joining UA in 1986 as an assistant professor in the UA College of Engineering's department of mechanical engineering, Dr. Bell was named department head nine years later.

With research interest in combustion engines, Dr. Bell has expertise in alternative fuels for engines, innovative engine designs and modeling of engine and engine processes. He directed UA's Center for Advanced Vehicle Technologies.

Dr. Bell was awarded the Society of Automotive Engineers' Ralph Teetor Award for Outstanding Contributions to Research and Teaching in 1988. He was presented the T. Morris Hackney Faculty Leadership Award for the UA College of Engineering in 2001, and, in 2005, he received the Richard S. Woodbury Award from the American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

An Abilene, Texas, native, Dr. Bell earned a nuclear engineering degree from Texas A&M University in 1979. He earned his master's and doctorate degrees in mechanical engineering from Texas A&M in 1981 and 1986, respectively.

He and his wife, Susan, have three adult children, Stuart, Stacy and Stephen, and one granddaughter.

- Enrollment at The University of Alabama reached a record high of 37,665 for fall 2016. The entering freshman class, at 7,559 students, is the largest and best qualified in UA history. More than 40 percent of UA's 7,559-member freshman class scored 30 or higher on the ACT, up from last year's record 36 percent.

- The University of Alabama is a leader among public universities nationwide in the enrollment of National Merit Scholars with more than 600 currently enrolled.

- Ranked among the top 50 public universities in the nation in U.S. News and World Report's annual college rankings for more than a decade, UA ranked 46th among public universities in the 2017 rankings. UA's latest college rankings include:

- The School of Law is ranked 28th among all law schools in the nation (10th among public universities), spring 2016.

- The School of Library and Information Studies is ranked 18th nationally (15th among public universities) in the latest rankings for library schools, spring 2013

- University of Alabama students continue to win prestigious national awards. Forty-seven UA students have been named Goldwater Scholars, including two in 2016. The University of Alabama has produced a total of 15 Rhodes Scholars, 16 Truman Scholars, 32 Hollings Scholars and six Boren Scholars.

- Thirty UA faculty have received NSF CAREER Awards, the nation's most prestigious recognition of top-performing young scientists, in disciplines ranging from nanoscience and engineering to biological sciences.

- Dr. Samantha Hansen, UA associate professor of geological sciences, is one of many faculty recognized nationally for research. Hansen is one of 102 scientists who received the 2014 Presidential Early Career Award for Scientists and Engineers, the highest honor bestowed by the U.S. government on science and engineering professionals in the early stages of their independent research careers.

- Seven University of Alabama alumni and graduate students have won Fulbright awards for 2016-17. Two UA graduate students received Fulbright research awards. Five UA graduates won awards as teaching assistants to research and teach abroad.

- U.S. News and World Report ranks The University of Alabama's Manderson Online Business Master's programs 16th in the nation. The rankings are based on level of accreditation, faculty credentials, admissions selectivity, reputation for excellence among peer institutions and academic and career support services offered to students.

- Public Accounting Report's 2016 rankings place UA's Culverhouse School of Accountancy's undergraduate and master's programs 8th and its doctoral program 9th.

- PRWeek Magazine has recognized the public relations program in The University of Alabama's College of Communication and Information Sciences as one of the top five programs in the nation six times.

TOP RANKED ON YOUR CAMPUS...

BILL BATTLE

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

William R. "Bill" Battle is in his fourth year as Director of Athletics at The University of Alabama. Since taking the job on March 22, 2013, (succeeding the late Mal Moore, who had held the position since November 1999), Battle has not only maintained Alabama's unparalleled athletics success, but also has placed increased focus on the primary mission of Alabama Athletics: to recruit and develop student-athletes to compete at the highest levels in intercollegiate athletics, to educate and prepare student-athletes to compete at the highest levels in life after graduation, and to accomplish both with honor and integrity.

Battle took the job at Alabama after a career as a college football coach and entrepreneur that was consistently hallmarked by innovation and foresight. During Battle's tenure, Alabama has produced three NCAA team national championships (men's golf in 2013 and 2014; football in 2015); 10 SEC team championships in five different sports (three in football, two in gymnastics, two in men's golf, and one in women's golf, softball and women's tennis); 15 NCAA individual champions (seven in 2013-14, six in 2014-15, and two in 2015-16); 43 Academic All-Americans (eight in 2013, 17 in 2014, eight in 2015, 9 in 2016, and one so far in the 2016-17 academic year – leading the nation in that category in both 2014 and 2015), including six Academic All-Americans of the Year (one in 2013, 2014 and 2015 and a national-leading three in 2016); and 16 NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship awardees (5 in 2013, a national-leading 7 in 2014, two in 2015, and 3 in 2016).

Battle's vision has impacted the Alabama Athletics Department in numerous ways over the last three years, particularly in revitalized fundraising efforts that directly enhance the daily experience of every Crimson Tide student-athlete. Battle spearheaded the redevelopment of Alabama's historic baseball facility, Sewell-Thomas Stadium, transforming an aging facility into one of the nation's most dynamic venues when the stadium opened in February, 2016. He also has led the drive for numerous other facility and departmental improvements, including a new rowing facility and plans for a new aquatics facility. He has increased outreach efforts to keep students, fans, faculty, staff and stakeholders abreast of what is happening in Alabama Athletics.

A native of Birmingham, Ala., Battle attended The University of Alabama on a football scholarship and enjoyed a successful playing career as a three-year starter at end for the Crimson Tide under legendary head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant from 1960-62. Battle was a member of Bryant's first national championship team at Alabama in 1961. Generally regarded as the team's best end throughout his playing career, Battle came to Tuscaloosa after starring in three sports at Birmingham's West End High School.

An excellent student, Battle earned a bachelor's degree in Biology (minor in Psychology) from The University of Alabama in 1963 and a master's degree in Education from The University of Oklahoma in 1964. He was an Academic All-SEC selection as a senior in 1962 and was selected to play in the Senior Bowl all-star game in Mobile, Ala., in January of 1963. He was named first team tight end and second team defensive end on The University of Alabama All-Decade Team of the 1960s, a decade in which Alabama won three national championships (1961, 1964 and 1965).

Battle began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at The University of Oklahoma in 1963 under famed head coach Bud Wilkinson. In 1964 and 1965, he served as an assistant coach at the United States Military Academy while serving a two-year military tour. In 1966, he moved on to the University of Tennessee, where he served as an assistant coach under head coach Doug Dickey for four seasons (1966-69) until he was named head coach of the Volunteers in 1970. When he was named head coach, Battle was the youngest head coach in college football at the age of 28.

During his seven-year tenure as head coach (1970-76), Battle's teams went 59-22-2, finished three seasons ranked in the nation's top 10 among five top-20 finishes and won four out of five bowl games. Battle's Tennessee teams won 11 games once (1970) and at least 10 games in three different seasons (1970, 1971 and 1972). His first Tennessee team finished the season ranked fourth in both national polls. His 1971 team finished ranked ninth in both national polls and the 1972 Tennessee squad finished ranked eighth by the Associated Press and 11th in the coaches' poll.

Next, Battle embarked on a career in the private sector, holding various positions within Circle S Industries in Selma, Ala., and serving as president of two different companies, as well as vice chairman of the Circle S Holding Company Board. During his six years at Circle S, the organization grew from two companies earning $12 million in annual sales to 10 companies earning $60 million.

In 1981, Battle founded The Collegiate Licensing Company (CLC) and served as president and Chief Executive Officer (CEO) until 2002. He also served as chairman of the board of Licensing Partners International (LPI), created in 2001 to represent the licensing interests of non-collegiate sports properties as well as corporate and entertainment properties. The companies were sold to IMG in 2007, but he continued as chairman of CLC and as a consultant to IMG until March of 2013 when he returned to Alabama.

A 1981 inductee into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame, Battle was inducted as the first member of the charter class of the National Collegiate Licensing Association Hall of Fame in 2000. He was the recipient of the 2005 Paul W. Bryant Alumni Athlete Award at The University of Alabama and was inducted into the International Licensing Industry Merchandisers' Association (LIMA) Hall of Fame in 2008.

In December of 2008, Battle received the National Football Foundation's Outstanding Contributions to Amateur Football honor. In 2010, he was inducted into the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators' (NACMA) Hall of Fame. In 2011, Battle was inducted into the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame, receiving its Lifetime Achievement Award. In 2016, Battle was inducted into the Sporting Goods Industry Hall of Fame. Bill currently serves on the boards of the Bryant-Jordan Student-Athlete Foundation, The University of Alabama A-Club Educational & Charitable Foundation, the Crimson Tide Foundation, and the National Football Foundation.

Battle's wife, Mary, is a summa cum laude graduate of the University of Texas' School of Nursing with a Bachelor of Science degree in nursing. Mary earned a Master of Science in healthcare administration from The University of Alabama-Birmingham. For many years she worked in the healthcare industry, both in the clinical setting and for healthcare corporations that developed and managed physician provider networks, including the development of strategically significant relationships with payors and business and industry.

Mary currently serves on the Arthritis Foundation National Board of Directors and is the chairperson of the Arthritis Foundation Leadership Council for the Birmingham market. She is also a member of the Volunteer Engagement Task Team for the Arthritis Foundation. In addition, Mary is an inaugural member of the UAB School of Medicine Board of Visitors and is active in fundraising activities for UAB that support research projects targeting more effective treatment for rheumatoid arthritis.

The Battles also serve as part of UAB's Stem Cell Institute Board and are active in their support of UAB's Department of Rheumatology. In their leisure time, Bill and Mary enjoy spending time on their ranch in Georgia. Mary is an avid equestrian while Bill enjoys working on various projects around the ranch.

ON YOUR CAMPUS...

From the architecture to the landscaping, The University of Alabama campus is one of the most beautiful places in the state of Alabama. With more than 200 academic majors, outstanding honors programs and a championship athletic tradition, UA offers a complete educational, cultural and social experience. Our undergraduate, graduate and professional programs give students the opportunity to interact with nationally ranked faculty and our distance learning programs offer learning that fits your life.

Life on the UA campus is defined by opportunities. Students who want to get involved can join one of more than 350 student organizations, help plan concerts and speaker series, volunteer in the community, participate in intramural teams or run for student government.

Students, faculty, staff and visitors can take advantage of a rich and varied schedule of musical, dance and theatre performances, art galleries and exhibitions, lectures and readings by writers, poets and experts on every topic imaginable. UA's fine museums house countless historical artifacts and offer hands-on exploration opportunities.

The Ferguson Center, UA's student union, was renovated and expanded in 2014, providing more space for student activities and a larger food court and Supply Store. The new Fresh Food Company as well as Lakeside and Burke dining halls offer a wide variety of food service options.

The Student Recreation Center offers first-class recreation facilities to students, faculty and staff. It includes two multi-use gyms, nine multi-purpose courts, weight machines, 1/8-mile jogging track, extensive cardio area, locker rooms, indoor swimming pool, dry and steam saunas, 12 lighted tennis courts, four aerobics rooms, eight racquetball courts and a squash court—together encompassing more than 200,000 square feet. The facility's outdoor aquatic area features a lazy river, lap swim, large water-park-type slide and lots of deck space. An additional recreation and student center is conveniently located for residential students between the Presidential 1 and II residence halls.

Whatever your interests, you will find a group, an organization, an activity or a program that will appeal to you at UA.

20th Season

HOUSTON, 1991

"The Capstone" is a nickname for The University of Alabama, but in its literal sense, it means the top stone or high point. For The University of Alabama's women's tennis team and head coach Jenny Mainz, it's a guidepost for a program whose roots are grounded in a philosophy of building a program brick-by-brick over time with character, integrity, a strong work ethic, good sportsmanship and teamwork. A Capstone can never be placed on a foundation built on anything less, the way Coach Mainz sees it. Success is not defined by a single match, season, or team—but rather it is the cumulative body of work in the constant pursuit of excellence over time—inside the classroom, on the court, and in the community.

On the Court

In 19 seasons leading the Crimson Tide women's tennis team, Mainz has taken the program to heights never before seen in the program's long and rich history. Mainz, the only coach in Alabama history to take the Tide to five consecutive NCAA championships and 12 overall, has coached 12 teams that have finished in the top 40 in addition to 23 singles players and 17 doubles teams ranked in the final Intercollegiate Tennis Association polls.

Over her last six seasons, Mainz has coached the Crimson Tide to some truly great heights. In 2012, her doubles pairing of Alexa Guarachi and Mary Anne Daines reached the NCAA semifinals, while Guarachi also reached the NCAA semifinals in singles in that same season. On May 25, 2015, reigning NCAA Doubles Champions, Maya Jansen and Erin Routliffe, stamped their names in the collegiate tennis record books, defeating Cal's Klara Fabikova and Zsofi Susanyi by a final score of 6-2, 6-7(5), 6-3 to become only the third doubles team in the history of NCAA women's tennis to win back-to-back national titles.

In 2011, UA finished fourth in the conference and claimed the SEC Western Division title for the regular season. The Tide once again claimed the Western Division title in 2012, this time finishing second overall. For the 2013 season, Alabama was ranked fourth in the conference, but the Crimson Tide continued to build upon its success as the team entered 2014.

Mainz's 2014 team made history, wrapping up the season as the sixth-ranked squad in the ITA rankings, which is the highest final ranking for the program. Alabama was ranked in the top-10 throughout the year, reaching a No. 2 ranking on May 1, the highest rank in the history of the program. The 2014 Crimson Tide women finished with just one loss in conference play and posted seven 4-0 sweeps throughout the season. But the most noteworthy accomplishment her team pulled off was capturing the program's first Southeastern Conference Championship. With a 4-3, come-from-behind victory at eighth-ranked Georgia, Alabama clinched at least a part of the 2014 SEC title; that wasn't enough for the Tide women. Alabama followed that up with a 4-0 sweep of Tennessee to claim the conference title outright on the final day of the regular season.

In 2015, the Crimson Tide collected 18 wins overall, bringing its total victories since 2011 to 98, which is the most in a five-year span in program history. Last season, Mainz had a pair of singles players in Andie Daniell and Routliffe cap off the season ranked nationally while also placing two doubles teams in the final rankings. Daniell became one of the most decorated freshmen in Alabama history as she was named SEC Freshman of the Year, ITA Southern Region Rookie of the Year, second team All-SEC and to the SEC All-Freshman team. Routliffe also stamped her name in the Tide record books as she became the fourth member to earn first team All-SEC honors for a third consecutive season.

For a program that was 0-21 her first season to a conference champion, Mainz has surely transformed the women's tennis program into a perennial power and one of the University's most consistent teams.

In the Classroom

As proud as she is of her team's on-court success, Mainz is equally as proud of their academic success. The Alabama women have impressed in the classroom each year under her tutelage. For five straight years, the Crimson Tide has earned the NCAA Division I Public Recognition Award. At the conclusion of the 2013-14 season, the women's tennis team combined for the highest grade point average amongst women's programs at UA. In the past five seasons, the Tide women have laid claim to 30 ITA Scholar Athlete Awards, with five apiece coming in the first three campaigns and a program-best seven in 2015. The Crimson Tide's efforts in the classroom are unmatched as the women continue to lay claim to the SEC's and NCAA's most prestigious academic awards following each season.

In five of the last six years, at least one member of the UA women's tennis team has been named to the CoSIDA/Capital One Academic All-America team, while the Tide has also claimed five SEC Scholar Athlete of the Year Awards for women's tennis. Also, during three of those seasons, a member of the women's team has claimed the NCAA Elite 89 Award, an honor that is presented to the student-athlete with the highest cumulative grade point average participating at the finals site for each of the NCAA's 89 championships.

"Academic success is imperative. I have always stressed the importance of academics and I always tell my players that no one can ever take your education away from you. I hope to help produce student-athletes who are well equipped to make an impact beyond tennis," says Mainz.

Being named to the CoSIDA/Capital One Academic All-America Women's At-Large Team started following the 2010-11 season, when Courtney McLane claimed the honor for the Tide. McLane received the distinction a second consecutive year following the 2011-12 season as well. Following McLane's graduation, Antonia Foehse picked up where McLane left off, being selected following the 2012-13 season. In 2014, Mary Anne Daines followed her ex-teammates in earning the honor once again for Alabama women's tennis. Senior captain Emily Zabor earned the honor in 2015.

Zabor was also honored by the conference for her academic success, earning the Southeastern Conference Scholar Athlete of the Year award in 2015. The same progression the Crimson Tide saw with the CoSIDA/Capital One All-American awards continued on in the conference as well, as Zabor marked the third consecutive member of the Tide to win the award.

In order to help produce such well-rounded young women, Mainz preaches three core values to her players: having a blue-collar work ethic, striving for constant improvement and working together as a team.

"Jenny provides an unbelievable support system for her student-athletes both on and off the court," said 2015 SEC Community Service Team member Natalia Maynetto. "Jenny is one of the most genuine people you'll ever cross paths with and she truly wants what is best for those around her. Her priority to develop and maintain personal relationships with us helps us on the court, in the classroom and in the community."

The Crimson Tide athletes under Mainz have seen a lot of success during their active time as an athlete with the team, but the women don't stop their studies once their playing days are over. Alabama women have earned three NCAA postgraduate scholarships over the past five seasons. In 2012, Taylor Lindsey earned the honor for the Crimson Tide. She was followed up by Foehse in 2013 and Daines in 2014.

Although much of the successes of any athletic team are seen on the court, Mainz has produced well-rounded athletes that work just as hard away from the sport. Her women continue to exemplify exactly what it means to be a student-athlete at The University of Alabama.

In the Community

In order to build the best possible persons, not just athletes, Mainz has placed a focus on community service and giving back to the Tuscaloosa area. Her athletes are not just stars on the court and in the classroom, but they are also champions of the University and make an impact on their community.

Every year, the women's tennis team makes it a point to take advantage of every opportunity they have to help out those in need in Tuscaloosa and surrounding areas. In the past three years, the team has partnered with Habitat for Humanity to help build a house for a person in need. The team also takes part annually in the athletic department's Halloween Extravaganza for local youth, as well as the Project AngelTree event, in which student-athletes help in making sure that children of incarcerated parents are provided presents each December holiday season.

For all their hard work on the court and in the community, Mainz and her team received a proclamation from Tuscaloosa Mayor Walter Maddox, making September 16, 2014 "University of Alabama Women's Tennis Day". The proclamation was given to the team in recognition of all that they have done in the past year, and to make sure that the community takes note of the accomplishments of the Alabama tennis program.

Mainz is actively involved in collegiate tennis on the national front, serving on the ITA's Operating Committee since 2010, of which she is currently the Associate Chair. She also served as the chairperson for the ITA's South Region for three years and assumed the same role for the newly formed Southern Region in 2010, a position which she still maintained through last season. Possibly her most prestigious work on the national front came in 2014, when the Alabama coach was selected as a member of the ITA Board of Directors.

Before Leading the Tide

Mainz, once ranked in the top 10 nationally in doubles, was a three-year team captain for the University of Houston Cougars and a two-time

All-Southwest Conference selection, garnering numerous accolades for her dedication to the game of tennis on the court. Off the court, however, is where she truly shined, earning CoSIDA GTE Academic All-America status and dean's list honors while also being a member of the Omicron Delta Kappa Honor Society. Mainz graduated with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology from Houston in 1991.

ASSISTANT COACH SHELLEY GODWIN

SHELLEY GODWIN

Assistant Coach Second Season

ALABAMA, 2009

Shelly Godwin is entering her second season as the Alabama women's tennis assistant coach. The Crimson Tide finished nationally ranked in her first season as an assistant coach, and it sent two student-athletes to the NCAA singles championships.

Godwin spent four seasons as a player for Mainz from 2005-09.

Prior to her return to Alabama as an assistant coach, Godwin served as the head coach at Middle Tennessee State from 2012-15.

As the head coach of the Blue Raiders, Godwin led the program to four consecutive winning seasons for the first time in over ten years. She coached two nationally ranked singles players, including the Conference USA Newcomer of the Year in 2014. The Birmingham, Alabama native saw her team reach as high as No. 65 in the national rankings in 2014-15, and finished the campaign ranked No. 75 -- the first time the Blue Raiders have finished a season in the national rankings in over ten years. Prior to her stint with the Blue Raiders, Godwin completed two seasons as the assistant head coach at Michigan State, helping the Spartans reach as high as No. 52 in the ITA rankings in 2010-11.

Off the court, the Middle Tennessee State Blue Raiders shined under Godwin's leadership. Her team earned numerous ITA All-Academic Team honors, and saw six of its members named ITA Scholar Athletes. In 2014, MT earned the All-Academic Team award, and two Blue Raiders were tabbed ITA Scholar Athletes. Seven Blue Raiders were named to the 2014 Conference USA Commissioner's Honor Roll, while two earned C-USA Academic Medals. Additionally in 2014, Godwin saw Nayara Moraes garner Arthur Ashe Jr. Sports Scholar First Team Women's Tennis honors. Following the 2014-15 campaign, Godwin was awarded the "Making A Difference Award" at the 2015 Raider's Choice Awards for leading a group of our female athletes on a mission trip to the Dominican Republic.

A Birmingham, Ala., native, she played collegiately at Alabama and finished her career with a combined 88 victories, including 59 in singles action. She received one of the ITA's highest honors in 2009, as she was tabbed the ITA/Arthur Ashe Leadership and Sportsmanship Award honoree. The award is presented to the women's tennis player who exhibited outstanding leadership and sportsmanship as well as scholastic, extracurricular and tennis achievements.

On the court, she served as the Crimson Tide captain her final three years, and was picked as a member of the Academic All-SEC Team all four seasons. She was a member of the Dean's List at Alabama since 2007.

Godwin also served as the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) representative. In her role with SAAC, she was instrumental in coordinating the tennis teams' community service activities throughout Tuscaloosa. She also attended the Fall 2008 SEC SAAC Conference in Birmingham.

She also has served as an instructor at the Alabama Tennis Camps where she provided individual training for high school athletes, fine tuning their game in preparation for tennis at the collegiate level. She assisted in weekly structured practices, while helping to improve the technical skills of each player.

Keith Swindoll is in his second stint as the volunteer assistant coach on Jenny Mainz's women's tennis coaching staff. A familiar face around The Capstone, Swindoll also served as a volunteer assistant for six seasons from 1999-05, the longest tenure for a volunteer coach in the SEC at the time.

Swindoll began his coaching career as a student assistant for the men's team in 1981.

Since then he has claimed numerous awards and honors as Tuscaloosa's local tennis guru. After graduating from UA in 1985 with a degree in sports marketing, Swindoll received his first shot at being a head coach at Tuscaloosa Academy in 1987. There, he spent twelve seasons as head coach of both the girl's and boy's tennis programs, and won at least one state championship in each of those twelve years. He has twice been named Alabama High School Coach of the Year, 1994 and 1998, and is four-time Alabama Pro of the Year, 1990, 1991, 1993 and 2000.

Swindoll's playing career is highlighted by his countless awards and accolades collected over his tenure. He is a former No. 1 player in the men's 30-and-over division in Alabama, and a six-time Alabama Tennis Professional of the Year. Swindoll is a United States Professional Tennis Association Master Professional, an honor that less than 1 percent of tennis professionals worldwide achieve. Inducted into the Alabama Tennis Hall of Fame in Feb. 2013, Swindoll was also named the Alan Henry USPTA Southern Professional of the Year.

Swindoll has been the Director of Tennis at the Indian Hills Country Club since 1987.

Under his leadership, the country club has been named United States Tennis Association Tennis Facility of the Year in 1989 and 2000.

Aside from tennis, Swindoll has developed a passion for charitable work. In 1990, he set a then southern record by playing tennis for 72 hours to raise money for local charities. He hosts "Keith's Classic" which has raised money for local charities for the past 10 years. In 2011, he held the tournament a week after a devastating tornado ripped thru Tuscaloosa, raising over $6,000 for the Tornado Disaster Relief Fund. Swindoll raised over $8,000 in 2012 for American Cancer Society in honor of Hubert Kessler, a tennis activist who was battling melanoma. In 2013, he raised over $11,000 for Children's Hospital in memory of Will May a junior who passed in a tragic accident.
